Student: I intend to submit an application for part-time student membership with Professionals In Human Resources Association (PIHRA). I understand that my eligibility for student membership is contingent upon the following:

- Registration at an accredited college or university.
- Enrollment in a minimum of one course.
- Academic course work with a Human Resources emphasis or a closely related to field.
- Proof of Eligibility: Submission of the PIHRA Part Time Student Membership Application must be accompanied by current class schedule. The membership application must also include a signed approval by the student's faculty advisor or professor, verifying the individual's part time student status (see attached form). All above noted documents must be submitted to PIHRA Home Office for processing in one packet. When registering for part-time student membership online, individual must submit current class schedule and faculty approval immediately via email to membership@pihra.org. Membership will be in suspense until noted documents are received.
- Payment of $100 for Part-Time Student Membership.
